28 people have recommended Harvey F.

"Harvey is detailed oriented but always able to see the big picture in resolving issues related to the voter registration system and other information systems at the Georgia SOS office. Harvey understands the importance of maintaining communications with clients and colleagues. Incredibly reliable and conscientious. I recommend Harvey without reservation."

— Merle King, Executive Director, Center for Election Systems, Kennesaw State University, was with another company when working with Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"Harvey Davis solves IT issues. When tasked with a challenge, Harvey is tenacious and unrelenting. He understands IT- from infrastructure to end user support, Harvey brings a mature and seasoned wealth of knowledge to all the projects he manages. When negotiating in tough terrain, I would want Harvey on my side of the table."

— Leslie Robinson, Elections Training Manager- Secretary of State, State of Georgia, worked with Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"Harvey worked directly for me during my tenure as CIO. I found Harvey to be a dedicated, responsible employee. With his background in Elections, I asked hm to run a major project for our office. He took on the task and worked very well with the vendor and other stakeholders on the project. I would recommend Harvey for positions of greater responsibility as he continues his career."

— Randy Vaughn, CIO, Georgia Secretary of State, managed Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"Harvey is a highly effective project manager and driver of IT solutions. He effectively managed the technology team supporting Georgia's Voter Registration and Elections Systems. He was instrumental in modernizing the Elections systems support organization, implementing a web based ticketing system, the replacement of the Elections Supply Inventory System and various systems interfaces with the Department of Drivers Services (DDS). He is results oriented and responsive to the needs and concerns of his customers."

— Karen Handel, Secretary of State, State of GA, managed Harvey F. indirectly at State of Georgia

"Harvey is very knowledgeable of information systems and highly competent technically. In addition, when he came to his current position, he was required to perform under very difficult, stressful circumstances, often with nearly impossible deadlines. However, he was effective at producing a product of extraordinarily high quality and made many creative, useful suggestions to improve the statewide system, which was a benefit to the many Election Officials that worked with the system. His technical excellence makes it a pleasure to work with him, but his star quality is his ability to speak to anyone, at any level, without being condescending or unnecessarily technical. That is a quality very few developers possess."

— April Pye, Administrative Chief, Fulton County Registration and Elections, Fulton County, Georgia, was with another company when working with Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"I worked with Harvey in developing a Georgia Contract for Evaluation and Improvement Recommendations for the the State Voter Registration System. Throughout the heavy technically laden process, Harvey provided every detail asked for and was a key player in the succewssful procurement and recommendations for improvement on the State Voter Registration System. His professionalism and his demeanor make him a pleasure to work with. I recommend Harvey with 100% confidence! Billy Gilbert Associate Category Manager Georgia State Purchasing Division"

— Billy Gilbert, Associate Category Manager, Fleet Category, Georgia State Purchasing Division, Department of Administrative Services, worked directly with Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"Harvey is the consummate IT professional. He is thorough and detailed in his analysis and does his work with excellence. He is a team player and understands the value of linking strategic objectives with tactical and operational goals. It was a pleasure working with Harvey at SOS!"

— Chauncey Newsome, Corporations Division Director, State of Georgia, managed Harvey F. indirectly at State of Georgia

"Harvey managed the services that were key sources of information for our investigations. I relied on the information to assist me in investigating some very complex cases. I appreciate the support you provided and wish you well."

— Hall Adrick, Investigator, Georgia Secretary of State, worked with Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"Harvey has incredible focus on projects with an innate ability to successfully multi-task."

— John Jurkiewicz, Director of Human Resources, Georgia Secretary of State, worked with Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"Harvey is a great manager, Harvey is extremely encouraging, a good listener and supportive of his team. He has good foresight on next steps withing a project. It would be a great honor to work on any team he has."

— Carol Goldberg, Senior Database Administrator, State of Georgia - Secretary of State, reported to Harvey F. at Secretary of State of Georgia

"These recommendations don't allow the appropriate form. It was I who worked for and with Harvey as a consultant on an "under pressure" project to develop detailed requirements specification for the new voting system in the state of Georgia. Harvey was excellent to work with and for - knew his subject, treated people with respect and integrity. Bottom line is that together the job was done well on time and everyone was satisfied with the results. I would work for and with Harvey again and have no trouble recommending him for advanced management positions."

— Pete Flagg, was Harvey F.'s client

"As the project sponsor for a key initiative for the GA SOS, Harvey displayed extraordinary leadership to our project by providing necessary guidance on the business imperative, and expediting the resolution of issues while ensuring the appropriate relationships were in place and maintained. The feedback provided by him was timely and essential in ensuring that the analysis and design completed supported the business objectives within the required timeline. The type of participation by Harvey is what assures a successful project."

— Peter Lowenstein, was Harvey F.'s client

"Harvey brought creativity and open-mindedness to a procurement and planning process, to the benefit of the citizens he serves. By resisting the bias toward traditional approaches, Harvey saved tax dollars and maximized value."

— Greg Ogburn, Senior Modernization Architect, MAKE Technologies Inc., was a consultant or contractor to Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"Harvey quite simply gets down to business and gets the job done."

— Scott Jones, Database Administrator, Georgia Secretary of State, worked directly with Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"Harvey has been a part of the Secretary of State's Office over five years and has been a great asset to the office. He is a person who has knack for being a perfectionist. As one of his colleagues, I find him to be a person who cares about his work, his co-workers and the organization. To have Harvey on any team will be great."

— Vernetta Gamble, Local Elections Official Liasion, State of Georgia, worked indirectly for Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"I am recommending Harvey Davis because he is a dedicated hard worker with years of experience. He is a team player and demonstrates good leadership in his role with the Secretary of State. With his background expertise and vast knowledge, Harvey is able to implement plans for projects from its inception to completion."

— Kevin Reaves, Voter Services Coordinator, Secretary of State Elections Division, worked directly with Harvey F. at State of Georgia

"When I took office as president of the Sandtown Community Association in 2005, we needed a webmaster. Harvey volunteer and he took us to the next level. He established Google email list for communication with our members and other things to keep us informed. He is superlative, works well with others and always looking for a way to improve our communications with each other. We are happy to have him as our webmaster because he keep up with all the trends and keep us up to date. If there a way to do it better, he will let us know. We are on facebook and I am proud as past president what we have achieved with him as our webmaster. He is the best! Betty Burke"

— Betty Burke, was Harvey F.'s client

"Harvey has run camera for our church on both Sundays and Wednesdays. He is capable of operating high quality HD professional cameras with excellent results."

"Harvey is a very capable, versatile, camera operator, and all around production professional."

— Joseph Kalcso, Camera Operator, In Touch, worked directly with Harvey F. at In Touch Ministries

"Harvey was a huge asset for our production video team. As a director, camera op, and a graphics engineer he demonstrated great skill."

— Richard Clark, Manager of Audio Visual Systems, First Baptist Church Atlanta, was with another company when working with Harvey F. at First Baptist Atlanta

"Harvey planned and coordinated the conversion of Atlanta Life's Policy Administration System from Liberty Insurance's software to IBM LifePro and the Y2K conversion for my department as AVP of Operations at Atlanta Life. He brought together the Liberty, IBM and Atlanta Life technical teams to bring about a smooth and successful insurance conversion. Mae D. Jones"

— Mae D. Jones, MBA, FLMI, Assistant Vice President - Operations, Atlanta Life Insurance Company, worked with Harvey F. at Atlanta Life Financial Group

"As Director of IT for Atlanta Life Financial Group, Harvey's previous industry experience, organizational skills, and ability to communicate with front line and Executive Staff helped to propel ALFG to the forefront of its market sector. Harvey will bring a wealth of experience and positive change to any organization. I was proud to have worked and learn from his."

— Danny Bryant, Network Administrator, Atlanta Life Financial Group, reported to Harvey F. at Atlanta Life Financial Group

"Harvey was a detailed and thorough manager. His team skills and followup were key to our project's success."

— Leigh Morgan, Program Assistant, Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games (ACOG), managed Harvey F. indirectly at Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games

"Harvey was very dedicated employee with great understanding of the working environment. He was responsible for the Help Desk infrastructure for the event driven environment which was very difficult to manage, very stressful and unstructured; new to every one due to the very unique circumstances - Summer Olympiad. Harvey is working very well in the stressed and "punishing" environment; he was able to prioritize problems for his team and resolved them under constant pressure from the media, sports federations and other vendors involved in the Summer Olympiad. He cherishes his team during crisis and was coming across in very positive way. If I will be building another critical situation management team to manage high visibility sport events I will hire Harvey again. Kuba Sliwinski"

— Kuba Sliwinski, Delivery System and Technology Operations Center Director, ACOG - Atlanta Olympic Games, managed Harvey F. at Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games

"Harvey was great to work with! Always had a cheerful disposition, no matter what the stress in planning the Olympic Games. I found out a couple of years later that he was asked to hang around and shut out the lights after the rest of us were long gone. I'll bet he was smiling when he hit the switch! ;-)"

— Curtis Palmer, Program Manager, Physical Planning, Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, worked with Harvey F. at Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games

"Harvey was my right hand when getting key projects done. He is an experienced project manager with an eye towards detail. He has a keen awareness of technology. He is a strategic thinker that always keeps an eye on the business and financial aspects. He is well worth your consideration."

— Steve Thurston, Director of Technical Services, Computerland Corporate, managed Harvey F. at Computerland

"I worked with Harvey at NYNEX in development projects and eventually in the marketing and delivery of support services. Harvey oversaw numerous marketing and program definition tasks to promote the sale of software and networking support services. Harvey is thorough, detail oriented and dependable in managing tasks both big and small to their completion on time and on budget."

— Woody McClintock, Help Desk Manager, NYNEX Business Centers, worked with Harvey F. at Computerland

"Harvey is a highly qualified and motivated technology professional. I worked with him at JCPenney and Harvey proved to be diligent, innovative and very organized. His abilities and efforts helped us to design, develop and deploy several innovative solutions for the time."
